LION DONATES JEANS DAY PROGRAM FUNDS TO LOCAL VETERAN'S ASSISTANCE GROUP

Dayton, Ohio - On Thursday, April 7th 2016, Steve Schwartz was joined by LION staff to present a donation in the amount of $1,250.00 to the Military Veterans Resource Center. The funds were part of LION's collected donations from the 2015 "Jeans Day" program.

Len Proper received the donation on behalf of the Military Veterans Resource Center, a statewide non-profit organization whose goal is to assist veterans as they return from to civilian life, and help them navigate the challenges associated with Post Traumatic Stress Disorder (PTSD). Len is the Executive Director and a USMC veteran. He spoke about the services offered at the center and the difference donations can make in helping the center assist veterans dealing with PTSD.

Ryan Sargent, a counselor for the MVRC, also spoke about his experiences rejoining civilian life, as well as the opportunity to counsel other veterans at the center.

This is the second donation of 2015 Jeans Day funds this year. In February, LION made a donation to the Vandalia Fire Department to go towards installing smoke detectors in underserved homes in the area.
